"FI-FI" is pronounced (Fee-Fee)

J. T. Stevens has purchased a new Paige touring car.—Kershaw Era.

One hundred and seventy-five people furnish cause for amusement in "FI-FI."

The freshly-painted white trimmings add much to the appearance of the Mackey building.

Net proceeds of nearly twenty-five dollars rewarded the workers for the Tirzah school from their box supper last Saturday night.

Did you know that letter blocks could come to life and that an ink-spot could run around and make a noise? "FI-FI" solves these problems.

"The Temptation," in which Geraldine Farrar played the leading part, was the attraction at the Star theatre Tuesday. It was a beautiful picture in which the famous prima donna was seen at her very best.

Mrs. Dora Dee Walker, assistant state agent for the home demonstration work, is here for several weeks helping Miss Martha G. Creighton, county demonstrator, in her exhibit for Field Day and in the organization of women's clubs throughout the county.

"FI-FI of the Toy Shop," which will be presented at the opera house next Friday, one week from to-night, has been presented already more than a thousand times throughout the United States. It is clever and original with new tuneful music and pleasing characters. "FI-FI" will be given under the auspices of the Mamie Fraser Society of the Presbyterian church.

Messrs. R. S. Stewart, Douglass Plyler, A. H. Robbins, Drs. C. B. Pratt and S. L. Allen motored to Cheraw Tuesday where they enjoyed a fish fry on the Pee Dee river, given by Mr. R. K. Laney, a brother-in-law of Mr. Stewart, who owns a fine farm on the river near Cheraw. They returned Wednesday night. The trip of over two hundred miles was made in Mr. Robbins' Chalmers car without even tire troubles.

E. E. Poag stated to-day that he had decided to enter business with T. M. Whisonant, under the name, Whisonant and Poag. A general real estate business will be handled, while the firm will also handle Chevrolet cars. A shipment of the latter has been ordered and the new firm will begin business just as soon as Postmaster McFadden takes charge of the local postoffice, which it is expected will be April 1.—Rock Hill Herald.

FUNERAL OF LITTLE HOWARD McMANUS.

The funeral of little Howard McManus will be preached by the pastor, Rev. Franklin Funderburk, at Union church on April 9, the second Sunday in April, the services beginning promptly at 11 o'clock.

Little Howard was a bright, sweet boy, only three years of age, whose baby prattle and the little prayer he said at night are missed in the home.

"FI-FI" OF THE TOY SHOP

Local Talent to Present Beautiful Musical Play Friday Night, April 7.

One week from to-night, Friday, April 7, "FI-FI of the Toy Shop" will be presented by local talent at the opera house. This is a most attractive musical extravaganza in which about 175 people will take part. It is to be given under the auspices of the Mamie Fraser Society of the Presbyterian church. A very encouraging start at practice for the play was made Wednesday.

Miss Adelyne Hood, one of Chester's most accomplished musicians has kindly consented to play the leading role, FI-FI, which is said to be well adapted to her youthful beauty and grace.

The theme of the play in brief is this: Bonnie, daughter of Tackhammer, the Toymaker, while working in her father's shop at the close of day is overtaken by the Sandman, who casts her into a magic sleep. She begins at once to dream a wonderful dream in which the bisque, wooden and paper dolls come to life and many strange adventures befall Bonnie and the toys before morning light scatters the charm. Lieutenant Tin Heart, a toy soldier, is the first to be awakened and beautiful "FI-FI" comes next. Besides "FI-FI" to be played by Miss Hood, several other principal characters are as follows:

Bonnie—Miss Pearl Coffey.
Sandman—Mr. Quay D. Hood.
Loosey—Miss Bessie McManus.
Ink Spot—Miss Willie Reed.
Aurelia—Miss Virginia Taylor.
Jap Doll—Miss Kate McManus.
Prince Lolly-Pop—Mr. Will Plyler.
Lieut. Tin Heart—Dr. C. B. Pratt.
Capt. Barnacle—Mr. J. Foster Moore.
Man-in-the-Moon—Mr. H. H. Kester.
Tackhammer—Mr. Steve C. Williams.
Bo-Peep—Mrs. H. H. Kester.
Chorus—Messrs. E. Curtis Mackey and Mark P. Johnson.

CLAUDE N. SAPP HONORED

Appointed Assistant Attorney General of South Carolina.

The many friends of Hon. Claude N. Sapp, of the Lancaster bar, will be pleased to know that he has been appointed assistant attorney general by Attorney General Thomas H. Peebles. Mr. Sapp will go to Columbia Monday to be sworn in. He succeeds Mr. Fred H. Dominick, of Newberry, who recently resigned.

Mr. Sapp is well equipped to fill the position. He is a graduate of Wofford college where he received his literary education. After leaving Wofford he entered the law department of the University of South Carolina and graduated therefrom with the B. L. degree. He served with distinction in the lower house of the South Carolina legislature.

We are glad to know that Lancaster is not to lose Mr. Sapp. He will still maintain his law office at this place.

WHAT PAPERS SAY OF "FI-FI"

"FI-FI" is wonderful. A dream fantasy of childhood. A production that every child and grown-up will wish to see.—Chicago Examiner.

In Bonnie's dream the toys come to life, bounding, exuberant, impish life and participate in a series of adventures that take them from the toy-shop through the Milky Way, the Gardens of Fairie Land and back to the toy-shop again.—Louisville Post.

When the Sandman cast his spell over Bonnie, he cast it not alone over the toy maker's pretty daughter. The hundreds of people who crowded the Empire yesterday knew not whether they were awake or dreaming. They lived in a fairyland where now and then they caught glimpses of a familiar figure, but in which they spent most of their time in surprise and bewilderment.

"FI-FI" was enjoyed more than any professional production ever seen in this city.—Quincy Herald.

There was not a dull moment in "FI-FI"—Indianapolis Star. "FI-FI" deals with a fascinating story, beautifully portrayed. It holds interest from start to finish.—South Bend News.

The novelty and clever portrayal of the toy comedy afforded the audience a genuine thrill.—Stockton Independent.

Colds Relieved Without Dosing

If you have tried "Internal" medicines without success, we want you to try the "External" treatment—Vick's "Vapo-Rub" Salve. Apply hot wet towels over the throat and chest to open the pores, then rub Vick's in well and cover with a warm flannel cloth. The body warmth releases healing vapors that are inhaled with each breath, and, in addition, Vick's is absorbed through the pores.

VICK'S VAPORUB SALVE

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do colds settle on your chest or in your bronchial tubes? Do coughs hang on, or are you subject to throat troubles?

Such troubles should have immediate treatment with the strengthening powers of Scott's Emulsion to guard against consumption which so easily follows.

Scott's Emulsion contains pure cod liver oil which peculiarly strengthens the respiratory tract and improves the quality of the blood; the glycerine in it soothes and heals the tender membranes of the throat.

Scott's is prescribed by the best specialists. You can get it at any drug store. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

DEATH OF MISS KATE GHENT

Miss Kate Ghent, daughter of Mr. Robert Ghent, passed away last Tuesday, March 21st, at her home in the Mill village, after a long lingering illness. Miss Kate was a lovely girl and was loved by all who knew her. She was about seventeen years of age. She bore her suffering well. The bereaved family has the sympathy of many friends.

This is a poem that was written and hidden away by her before she died:

"Do you hear the voices calling?
Listen children that you may.
Do you hear the baby voices
From the land so far away?
Do you hear the loving Saviour
Calling you to work and pray?
If you wait some baby voices
Will have died so far away.
Do you hear the Saviour pleading
'Suffer them to come to me?'
Bring, O bring my precious jewels,
Gather them from land and sea.
Will you send to them the story
Of that Saviour and His love?
Tell them how He wants to lead them
To the heavenly home above."

Youthful Watch.

Little Eda's mother had been presented with a watch for Christmas, and it was quite small. The first time Eda saw it she exclaimed: "Oh, mamma, what a young watch you have!"

THE ACTUAL FOUNDATION of the BUSINESS WORLD

NINE-TENTHS of the business of the world is done by checks. Why not do yours that way?

Your money is safer in a good bank than anywhere else. It is at your call at any time and you can pay it out simply by writing your check, a cleaner way than handling the actual bills and silver. Then, too, the check is a good receipt for payment, for, of course, the payee can't get the money—your money—from the bank, until he receipts for it.

We accept small accounts and are glad to get them
